

Grad students, get around for less with the USC U-Pass.

The fall semester USC U-Pass is $120.75 – good from August 12, 2019, to January 19, 2020.

The Universal College Student Transit Pass (U-Pass) program upgrades your existing USC student ID to a transit pass.

Once you have purchased a USC U-Pass, you'll receive a sticker featuring smart-chip technology. It's good for unlimited rides on all Metro bus and rail lines, Culver CityBus, GTrans, LADOT-DASH, Torrance Transit, Long Beach Transit, Montebello Bus Lines, Norwalk Transit, Pasadena Transit and Santa Monica Big Blue Bus for the entire fall semester.

Your USC U-Pass works like a TAP card; just tap on the dial each time you board a bus or train. Fall semester passes are valid from August 12, 2019, to January 19, 2020.

Load Stored Value to ride the other 25 TAP-participating transit systems in LA County. See taptogo.net for the full list of transit systems.

Eligibility: Must be a registered graduate student.

To purchase your USC U-Pass:

Your U-Pass purchase is final.
